

Warsaw Electronic Festival Record Label: WEFREC released a special free audio project published online and as a gift CD to commemorate the 40th Anniversary of the Apollo 11 Moon Landing accomplished on July 20, 1969 by astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin. The project will feature the sound sample of Neil Armstrong's famous quote, "One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." These words, and the buzzes and noises that accompany them, will undergo all possible alterations with the use of the most recent electronic tools available. To date, 15 artists representing various genres of electronic music have joined the project. Everybody is welcome to download this unique on-line long-play record from web address: <http://www.wef.pl/onestep>. For more details on the project, please visit www.wef.pl. You can also join the discussion on the audio collection here. You can also reach the CD release when it will be published contacting: info@wef.pl

Warsaw Electronic Festival: Some Facts

The Warsaw Electronic Festival is a series of experimental music events happening throughout the year. Founded by Jarek Grzesica, electronic artist, media art supporter, and radio journalist, this festival has attracted over 200 artists and 15,000 viewers/listeners since its inception in 2002. The Festival includes concerts, video art, interactive art, presentations, and lectures.

WEF has also been involved in other festivals and artists, including WRO, Transmediale Berlin, and V2 Rotterdam. WEF is now a year-long presentation, involved in other cultural events in Warsaw, such as the New New Yorkers Festival and Warsaw Summer Jazz Days, and all over Poland via its "WEF on Tour" series. The festival's virtual headquarters www.wef.pl also functions as a gallery presenting musicians, a discussion forum, and a source of free music.
